2 years experience working as a web developer. Looking for work as a junior or mid level developer. Previously working for BRE Investment as a web developer doing MEAN stack software development and then doing freelance web development and tutoring computer science. Before that I was pursuing a career in urban planning but decided that my skills and abilities are best suited for computer science. I have experience and skill in Javascript, HTML5, CSS3, jQuery, Node, Express, Mongo, Angular, Heroku, Firebase and bring a detailed understanding of data structures, discrete mathematics and programming logic to any development team. Graduate of General Assembly's Web Development Immersive, A.A. in Computer Science from Los Angeles City College, B.S. in urban studies from University of Minnesota.
