Web Designer/Developer skilled at designing and developing websites. I have a lot of experience developing websites from scratch although I can also work with products from different vendors. I can write HTML documents in HTML5 and develop style sheets using CSS3. In addition, I can also build websites using Content Management Systems such as WordPress.

I love working with photo editing software to create images that are clean and impactful. In addition, I have experience developing website layout and presenting apparel in appealing and innovative formats.
