WORK EXPERIENCE

Illustrator/Animator

PBS's Reba - 2017 to Present

I am the lead animator and illustrator of Reba to the Rescue, a children's television show that originated in Detroit and now runs on WKAR, the PBS station that airs out of East Lansing.

Freelance Videographer & Video Editor

- 2016 to 2017

I film and edit a variety of projects, including commercials, wedding videos, television programs, web-series, interviews, and more. My production reel, and many of my past projects, are available on my website and on my Vimeo account: johns4mc.wix.com/milesjohnson | <https://vimeo.com/milescameronjohnson>

Graduate Assistant for BCA 101

Central Michigan University - 2014 to 2016

I served as the lecture assistant for two years for this introductory film course at Central Michigan University, handling two classes per semester. I worked with hundreds of students, both in class and during my office hours, and graded all of their coursework, which included an analytic paper on a movie of their choice, and often a short weekly essay on a question regarding a film we watched in class.

Media Leadership Experience

President & Content Manager

Central Premiere Production - 2014 to 2016

I was elected the president of CMU's student filmmaking group in 2014, and oversaw the production of dozens of student-made short films and television episodes. I organized and ran workshops for students, teaching them the basics of DSLR videography, video editing, scriptwriting, film lighting, and more. I also directed many projects of my own, and provided students with on-set experience in a variety of crew roles.
